vain to defeat popular conservative Prime Minister Victor Orbán.

As Gateway Pundit reported, Biden, Berlin and Brussels worked together reelected in April with his fourth two-thirds majority (67,84%) - 135 out of 199 seats in Parliament. Orbán called it "a victory so great that you can see it from the moon."

"We are thankful for the hundreds of millions [of Hungarian forints] of support coming from the United States," said former PM candidate Péter

Márki-Zay back in June, publicly admitting to receiving HUF 1.8 billion ($4.5) million) in support from the US-based "Action for Democracy" organization.

But the now-declassified intelligence findings have uncovered an additional

HUF 1.2 billion ($3 million) in foreign funding. The more than HUF 3 billion (US
